

The dangers of consolidation that were warned about are manifest in Sinclair's use of public airwaves to bias an election. This is a corporate hijacking of democracy.